

Staff

St Peter's is run by a number of paid staff and volunteers. The list below gives details of those that you are most likely to see if you contact the church or come to a service.

Revd Jackie Searle - Vicar

Jackie has overall responsibility for St Peter's. Her previous experience includes lecturing at a theological college and several years as a primary school teacher.
Email: jackie@stpeterlittleover.org.uk

Jen Downing - Administrator

Jen is the Church Administrator responsible for the church office, and is usually the first point of contact when you call during the week. She is usually in the office from 9:30 to 1:30 Monday, Tuesday, Thursday & Friday. Please telephone or email if you have any queries.
Email: jen@stpeterlittleover.org.uk

Revd Brian Andrew - Associate Clergy

Brian brings a depth of experience to the team with 30 years in the ministry. He regularly takes services, weddings and funerals as well as being responsible for the prayer ministry.

Revd David Runcorn - Associate Clergy

David is a freelance writer, speaker and consultant in areas of spiritual development, vocational guidance and ministry development. He is an ordained minister in the Church of England and preaches and leads worship regularly at St Peters. His web site is: <http://web.mac.com/davidruncorn>

Paul Taylor - Reader

Readers are volunteers who are licenced by the Bishop to work within the Diocese of Derby. They are regularly involved in the leading of services and preaching.

Carole Dickinson - Reader

Phil Moncur - Reader

Phil Rollinson - Reader and Church Warden

Wardens are volunteers who are legally responsible for the buildings and the charity that underpins the work of St Peter's. They can normally be found carrying out much of the work that keeps the church running on a day to day basis.

Rachel Whitehorn - Church Warden

Gareth Roberts - Youth worker

>Email: gareth@stpeterlittleover.org.uk